

Guide To Membership & FAQ's

THE BALD HILLS ISLAMIC EDUCATIONAL ORGANISATION LTD

Benefits of being a member:

- Become an active participant in our community
- Book/borrow items for free e.g. tables/chairs etc.
- If you are a qualified trade/Professional we will actively help refer and promote your business
- Progress in membership from new, senior, executive member and be eligible for higher duties
- Participate in sub-committees, project management, and annual members meeting
- Be first to be consulted on important proposals, issues
- Be part of key decision making processes & help shape our mosque & community's future
- Quarterly insights from BOD meetings
- Your membership fees contributes towards paying for the running expenses
- Reward, Insha Allah, for your contributions

What's the process to become a member?

- Fill out and lodge the Membership Application form
- Board reviews/approves the application
- After endorsement, pay the appropriate membership fee to be formally approved

FAQs?

How is membership fee determined?

- Based on our income and expenses & is determined annually
- Eg: $200 per year equates to <55 cents a day
- Special memberships are cheaper (e.g. Seniors)
- Our mosque electricity costs alone to provide light and aircon/heating for the comfort of all is approximately $7/day
- This membership cost may be represented as a family membership. Hence an entire family's feedback, involvement and contribution to the masjid and its affairs are represented.

Can I join anytime?

- Yes, your membership fee will be pro-rata.

Can I terminate/end my membership anytime?

- Yes, however fees collected are non-refundable.